

MANY adults can take a leaf from the book of life of one ten-year-old Palm Springs youngster. The ruddy-cheeked, chubby girl came into this newspaper office a recent day to insert an advertisement. She sought work minding babies and assisting with dinner dishes. "I love to work," she explained blithely. For a child of ten her ambition and enterprise were particularly surprising and admirable, we thought. And we'll wager that she is quite competent to handle the job she advertises for.

IN a world which rapidly is becoming completely air-minded there are probably but few of us timid souls left. We mean quailing people who, acknowledging the magnificent progress of aviation, still fear to fly. Once, many years ago, we summoned up sufficient courage, to try the skyways in one of those great old Ford, tri-motored, all-metal jobs. That flight over San Francisco Bay and the Peninsula was a grand thing. We'll never forget it. But once it was over we were perfectly content to remain from thence on terra firma.

DURING intervening years we have been successful in doing so. However, the other day we didn't talk fast enough. Arlo Garrard and his wife, who are so efficiently conducting affairs at the Palm Springs Airport this year, were showing us the new Stinson which had arrived at the field. We admired it. We admired too well. "I'll take you for a little jaunt around the field," said Garrard. We demurred that it might be much nicer on a later date when we had the wife along.

BOTH Garrards grinned. "Come on, quit stalling," jibed the lady, whom we've always thought a very nice person. Reluctantly we climbed into one of the two seats. Garrard got in the other. Oh well, this flight sensation has been described too often and too well by others. But that brief journey high over the desert was indescribably thrilling. Old stuff to you veteran fliers. New enough to us. We imagine there are still a few other guys like us. We mean like we were. Try a flight with a quiet, expert chap like Garrard who makes flying a simple, swell thing, and you'll get air-minded in a hurry.

IT HAPPENS HERE... Wealthy, energetic winter resident Earl Gibbs, who takes his new job as head of the Field Club, seriously, piloting the club's little red truck around town. . . . And there was that polished screen actor, Bill Powell, riding up the street on a bicycle, his hair mussed and tummy exposed to the sun. . . . A plump tad in sunsuit, dragging three red wagons out onto the sidewalk from one of the stores, and squalling like everything when mama took them back. . . . Somebody said, "That's him all right. You can tell by his walk," and it was Jack Benny striding along briskly with that sort of militaristic stride of his. . . . Looking very fit, too, Senator Benny was. . . . This is entirely too much on the masculine side, but the females are so hard to recognize at times. . . . We did see Ann Shirley, who is mighty pretty, with her husband, John Payne, looking over some of their joint photographic efforts at one of the local shops.

PALM SPRINGS BOWLERS, many of whom are quite expert and all of whom are enthusiastic, are clamoring for a local team representation at the American Bowling Congress annual convention Feb. 1 to April 25 at St. Paul, Minn. Hold Annual Clinic Saturday; Xmas Seal Sale Starts Nov. 25

By MARGARET CREE

With Dr. F. M. Pottenger as examining physician, the annual fall chest clinic, sponsored by the Palm Springs branch of the Riverside County Tuberculosis association, will be held in Palm Springs, Saturday, November 16.

Funds for this clinic, as well as others held in all parts of the county, are secured through the sale of Christmas Seals, which will be offered to the public from November 25 to Christmas day. These seals, which are so familiar to everyone, carry a double duty: they help secure money for use in the prevention and cure of tuberculosis and they also focus the interest of the purchaser on the type of work being done.

VALUABLE WORK

Each year the County Tuberculosis Association makes possible the holding of clinics, where suspected cases are examined, and often are shown preventive measures which enable them to escape an active tuberculosis. Others, who have had active cases, are found to be arrested, and many of these cases are checked twice a year through these clinics.

During the year other work is carried on by public health nurses under funds provided through the sale of Christmas seals. Mrs. Jack C. Hill is chairman of the Palm Springs branch, and her committee includes Mrs. Francis Crocker, secretary; Fred Ingram, treasurer; Mrs. Raymond Cree, press chairman; Mrs. H. L. Hansen, Mrs. Lloyd Simon, and Mrs. Horace Pendery.

Burke Is New Head Man of Desert Riders

Those hard-riding and hardy equestrians, the Desert Riders, met yesterday afternoon at the Field Club to elect new officers and plot season action.

Tony Burke was chosen round-up boss, or president, succeeding Earl Gibbs. Melba Bennett was elected straw boss, following Norma Oliver in the vice-presidential job. To Frank Bogert goes the honor of stepping into Tony Burke's capable boots as top wrangler, or secretary.

Nancy Relf is the new treasurer, a job handled well last season by Katherine Clifton. Eugene Griffes continues as trails boss and C. E. Gordon was given charge of the commissary. First ride will be next Wednesday morning to Andreas Canyon.

PROMINENTS AID GREAT CAUSE

As it does in most worthwhile causes, Palm Springs this week has been rallying generously to the support of the American Red Cross. Following the successful benefit party at the Tennis Club Saturday night, the Roll Call has been under way this week at the postoffice. Here Mrs. James B. Oliver, center, chairman of the Roll Call committee, receives the memberships of Mrs. Thomas O'Donnell, president of the Woman's Club (right) and of Miss Marjorie Forline, prominent in social and club life.—P. WORLD-FAMOUS AQUATIC STARS TO PERFORM IN 13TH ANNUAL MEET THIS WEEK-END AT EL MIRADOR

Some of the most famous names in aquatic history are listed among the score or more of the nation's outstanding swimmers and divers who will gather at El Mirador Hotel this week-end, Saturday and Sunday, for the Thirteenth Annual Swimming and Diving Meet. Always one of the most important sports events in Palm Springs during the year, the water carnival undoubtedly will be more interesting than ever this season.

Making their first Southland appearance together, Johnny Weismuller and Esther Williams will head an impressive roster. It includes Bill Lewin, former Canadian high diving champion; Farid Samaika, Egyptian star and 1928 Olympic diving champion, and Lieutenant Frank Kurtz, member of both the 1932 and 1936 U. S. Olympic diving teams.

FEMININE GRACE

Brilliant Marjorie Gestring, 1936 Olympic champion, and Ruth Nurni, national diving champion, will illustrate the utter grace which makes feminine diving a thing of beauty to behold. On hand, too, will be the popular twin mermaid team of Virginia and Marian Hopkins, and the Los Angeles Athletic Club girls' swimming team, coached by Eileen Allen.

Also slated to appear during the program, which will get under way Saturday morning and conclude Sunday evening, are Myron Martin, national intercollegiate diving champion, who will do his famed three-and-a-half, eight members of the Pasadena Athletic Club, who will do formation swimming; Fred Cady and his University of Southern California swimming and diving team; Sammy Lee, South Pacific diving champion.

Wins Guardianship Of Her Two Sons

Guardianship of her two sons was awarded Mrs. Helene McGonagle, popular Palm Springs business and society figure, by Superior Judge O. K. Morton in Riverside this week.

Judge Morton removed the father, Robert E. McGonagle, as guardian of a $5,000 estate for each of two sons when he found the father to have mismanaged the estates. The boys were left this amount each by their paternal grandfather, William A. McGonagle of Duluth, Minn., who died several years ago and left an estate appraised in excess of $250,000.

H. L. Thompson was attorney for Mrs. McGonagle, while R. J. Welch, Jr., represented McGonagle.

CITY APPOINTS NEW HEAD FOR DISPOSAL DEPT.

After granting pay increases to employees of the city waste disposal department, the council at its meeting Wednesday appointed Carl McNealy as superintendent of the department beginning December 1.

On that date the leave of absence of W. L. Parkhurst, "loaned" to Palm Springs by the City of Fresno, expires and he returns to his duties in the northern city.

Parkhurst recommended McNealy's appointment at a salary of $150 a month. Also recommended was increase of truck drivers of the department from $120 to $132 per month and of helpers from $110 to $121. Both were approved by the council. McNealy also was given a $30 monthly car allowance.

Drusilla Wilson, Albert T. Thompson Are Wed in Yuma

While friends suspected a romance, vivacious Drusilla Wilson and Albert T. Thompson, popular villagers, pulled a neat little surprise when they drove to Yuma Tuesday night and were married.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Altha Wilson and the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Watson. She is a graduate of the Riverside Junior College and the Long Beach high school. Thompson is a prominent local restaurant owner.

Honeymoon plans are deferred until season's end. The couple have taken an attractive home on Chuckawalla Road.

Nothing is so infectious as example.—Charles Kingsley.

We can do more good by being good, than in any other way.—Rowland Hill.

Dance Plans Are Approved By Council

As first move to answer the dance problem in Palm Springs, the new city recreation commission has arranged to present dances twice weekly at the elementary school auditorium. This was disclosed at the Wednesday night meeting of the city council when Judge Albert R. Hoffman, president of the commission, requested council approval of the project. It was given.

Community dances are to be given on Thursday nights, beginning next Thursday, November 21, it was stated. High school dances will be held on Friday nights, beginning next week also. There will be proper official supervision of all these affairs, this lying in the hands of the recreation commission.

For several months there have been efforts to provide proper dance places for the young people, and adults as well, of the village. Various proposals were offered but action was deferred by the council in anticipation that the bothersome situation would be remedied speedily and satisfactorily by the recreation commission.

Rangers Ride Desert Trails

On their usual early season desert trek, the Ranger Division of the Los Angeles Breakfast Club will be in Palm Springs this week-end, with the Desert Inn as their headquarters.

Expected here for the few days of fun and frolic are such prominent members as Don Lake, J. E. Bauer, Ernest W. Bennett, Hugo A. Boucek, Dean S. Conklin, Clinton F. Dille, Dr. Wm. J. Frederick, Harold Kalley, David H. McCartney, Robert J. Trezevant.

Noted Speaker to Address County C. of C.

Dr. Frederic Woellner, prominent educator and speaker, will address the Riverside County Chamber of Commerce at its annual Palm Springs meeting on Tuesday, December 3, at the Desert Inn. These county meetings here always are well attended and offer features of interest. The local chamber officials have asked that reservations be made as early as possible.

VILLAGE GIVES RED CROSS ITS FULL SUPPORT

That Palm Springs appreciates the fine work of the Red Cross was shown forcibly by the huge turnout for the benefit dance last Saturday night and is being further demonstrated by generous response to the annual Roll Call this week.

Colorful, gay and thoroughly enjoyable, the Red Cross benefit party at the Palm Springs Tennis Club attracted a tremendous crowd. At least five to six hundred people were at the affair during the evening. Music and entertainment were tops.

Raise Tidy Sum

It was estimated by Mrs. Earl Gibbs, chairman, and Mrs. P. A. Staley, co-chairman, that the benefit buffet dance affair netted the Red Cross about $500. Approximately the same amount had been received by the Roll Call committee, headed by Mrs. James B. Oliver, up to last night. Mrs. Oliver expected to have her group finish the local campaign by the end of this week.

Mrs. Gibbs and Mrs. Staley have expressed sincere thanks, in behalf of the local Red Cross Branch, to all of the Palm Springs concerns and individuals who contributed so largely to the success of the benefit party.

A large part of the amount raised will be devoted to the American Red Cross activities in Palm Springs itself.

Rail Executive Stresses Appeal Of Palm Springs

Importance of Palm Springs in the nation-wide publicity and exploitation programs of the great railroads such as the Santa Fe, was stressed by M. L. Lyles, assistant to the president of the rail firm, at El Mirador, Thursday night.

Lyles briefly addressed a group of local civic leaders and hotel men. To illustrate his point he showed films taken of Palm Springs and vicinity.

RECEIVE LICENSE

Late today Sam Satlitz and Leo Baker, owners of the Sam and Leo delicatessens at the Plaza Market and new location in El Rey Building, received a telegram notifying them their application for a liquor license at their second store had been granted by the State Board of Equalization.

Peace Officers Will Hold Huge Gathering in Village Dec. 6

Strictly out to have fun and relaxation, approximately 1,000 Southern California peace officers and wives will hold one of their biggest gatherings of the year in Palm Springs December 6, it was disclosed by Chief of Police Norman Harstad this week.

Last year about the same time the village was host to the Riverside county group. This season's get-together will be a joint affair for the Southern California Association of Fingerprint Officers and the Riverside County Peace Officers Association. What makes the affair unique is that there will be no business meeting, no speeches, no election of officers. This party will be all—and entirely—fun.

PLENTY OF DIVERSION

Starting the day will be a pistol shoot at the police pistol range with trophies and prizes for the top marksman. While the gentlemen are busy about this, their ladies will be taken on motor trips about the town and surrounding country, the realty board furnishing cars for this phase of the entertainment. Rufus Chapman is in charge. Major afternoon diversions will

H. Plymire Is Appointed to Council Post

Endorsed by a majority of the voters in his district, Harry Lawson Plymire was appointed by unanimous vote of the city council Wednesday night to the councilmanic seat vacated by Commander Thales S. Boyd. Although Mayor Boyd was away in the East on business and Councilman Frank Pershing absent, the other four members wasted no time appointing him. He was sworn in with just as much celerity.

When Commander Boyd was called to San Diego to active naval duty he tendered his resignation. Friends of Plymire immediately set to work in his behalf. At the council meeting ten days ago action was deferred on his first petition for appointment.

Strong Support

This week City Clerk Guy Pinney reported the Plymire petition now bore names of 254 of the 474 registered voters in the district, 17 more than a majority.

Councilman Bacon L. Clifton declared then, "As long as Mr. Plymire has the signatures of a majority of the voters in his district and there could, therefore, be no doubt of the outcome of a special election, I move the city council appoint him to the office of city councilman for District One. Councilman Frank Shannon seconded and the motion carried.

Councilman Ray Sorum, mayor pro tem, called a five-minute recess to permit Pinney and City Attorney Colegate to get the necessary legal papers to swear in the appointee.

Sworn In

Plymire, looking dapper in a gray flannel suit, took the oath of office and his councilmanic seat after receiving congratulations from other council members and friends.

Acting Mayor Sorum permitted him sixty minutes to make a speech.

Munholland Heads Masons; Building Is Envisioned

Palm Springs Masons this week chose John Munholland, prominent realtor, as their new president and investigated possibility of erecting a Masonic building here.

Twenty-two Masons, eighteen local residents and four visitors, attended Monday's luncheon meeting at the Desert Inn, called by Dr. Russell Gray. Dr. Gray founded the Masonic group in Palm Springs and was its first president.

Principal business was selection of Munholland as new head to replace Commander Thales S. Boyd, called to naval duty at San Diego. One of Munholland's first jobs was appointment of a building committee. The committee is starting its work this week.

HERE'S A SLANT ON LONG LIFE

Presented by RALPH R. SUTHERLAND

Remember that one about how to live on fifteen dollars a week by cutting out your wife's beer? Well, here's one even better for the book:

A horse and mule live thirty years
And nothing know of wine and beers.

The goat and sheep at twenty die
And never taste of Scotch or rye.

The cow drinks water by the ton
And, at eighteen is mostly done.

The dog at fifteen cashes in
Without the aid of rum or gin.

The cat in milk and water soaks
And then in twelve short years it croaks.

The modest, sober, bone-dry hen
Lays eggs for nogs, then dies at ten.

All animals are strictly dry
They sinless live and swiftly die.

But sinful, ginfull, rum-soaked men
Survive for three-score years and ten.

And some of us—but mighty few—
Keep drinking 'til we're ninety-two.

Artists Appear at Woman's Club

Music and dancing will provide an entertaining program for the Palm Springs Woman's Club on Monday afternoon, with James Michial McDonald, tenor, and Mora Morena, dancer, as soloists. Miss Morena will present the dances of Spain and Mexico, her costumes being both gorgeous and authentic. The well-known tenor will climax his selections from various lights operas with a group of Hungarian Gypsy songs in costume.

Tea will be served at the close of the afternoon. As usual, non-members of the club will be welcomed upon payment of the admission fee.

Casa Palmeras Gets New Equipment

One of the largest new equipment installation jobs of the fall was that recently undertaken by Clarence Simpson, head of the Simpson concern, when he completely installed new Frigidaire equipment throughout at the lovely Casa Palmeras bungalow group. The Casa Palmeras recently was purchased by Mr. and Mrs. Horace Pendery. The Penderys are remodeling and beautifying the entire place. The picture above shows some of the Simpson installations.

Exclusive Shop Opens This Week

For a number of seasons one of Palm Springs' most exclusive shops, Mary Kazhal, Inc., opened this week. The shop is located in the Plaza and is owned by Mary Kazhal Waters, who has another smart women's store in Cleveland, Ohio.

The Palm Springs shop this season is under the management of Mrs. Clarece Martin. Assisting her is Miss Andrea Talvera, who has been with the Kazhal shop for the past four years.

Featured there are sportswear, and evening wear for women, lingerie and a select line of costume jewelry.

Attend Dr. Henley Inauguration as College Prexie

Inauguration of Dr. Wm. Ballentine Henley, recent speaker before the Palm Springs Woman's Club, as president of the College of Osteopathic Physicians and Surgeons of Los Angeles, will be witnessed by several or more Palm Springs residents.

Dr. and Mrs. C. E. Still will attend and Mrs. Thos. O'Donnell will do so if possible.

The inauguration, followed by a banquet, will take place at the Biltmore Hotel on Tuesday evening, November 19. Speakers will be Dr. Rufus B. von KleinSmid, president of the University of Southern California, where Dr. Henley formerly was dean, and Dr. Mary Emma Wooley, former president of Mount Holyoke College.

BIRTHDAY PARTY FOR MR. HEIDT

Honoring Joseph Heidt, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Bishopp entertained at a dinner party at their home Monday evening. This occasion marked the anniversary of Mr. Heidt.

Present besides the honored guests were Mrs. Heidt and twenty other guests.

Why we are threatened by a dangerous epidemic of homesickness. With thousands of young men headed for military camps and foreign refugees pouring into this country, the wholesale yearning for home may bring grave mental and physical disturbances, scientists say, unless proper preventive measures are observed. Prominents Attend First Dinner Dance of Season at Desert Inn

Distinctly one of the most enjoyable social affairs of the early season, the first dinner dance of the Desert Inn season last Saturday evening attracted an excellent crowd.

That charming Miss, Shirley Temple, who is a guest at the Inn with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Temple, was kept busy by a quadrone of gallant admirers. Dancing almost everything from rhumbas to waltzes the young star added many a new admirer to her already multitude of friends.

Drawing rounds of applause as they danced the Arthur Murray dance quiz were Miss Jean Hunter and Harry Bronson of the Arthur Murray Dance Studio. Miss Lois Roberts of Los Angeles and Elwood Ingledue of Glendale were winners of the bottles of champagne offered as prizes.

Younger Group

Entertaining the younger set was Miss Ruth Roberson, who had as her guests her sorority sisters, Helen Rockfellow, and Jean Steigewald of U.S.C. Alpha Delta Pi; Elizabeth Hofert, Cum-nock College; Mary Hay Barthelme, Beverly Hills; Henry Isaacs and Bud Cohen, Beverly Hills; Douglas Anderson, Delta Chi U.C.L.A.; Carleton Winslow, Alpha Rho Chi, U.S.C.; Burt McCready and Bob Anderson, Beverly Hills.

Many Parties

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas O'Donnell, Mr. and Mrs. Karl Kumpke of Long Beach, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Clock Jr., and Julian Rousell, who has taken a house in Palm Springs for the winter, were guests of Mrs. Nellie N. Coffman.

Others making merry at the gay affair included Mr. and Mrs. Carey Wilson, Bel Air; Mr. and Mrs. Carl Schiller, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. H. Van Colt, Beverly Hills; Mr. and Mrs. Hal Berger, Hollywood; Mr. and Mrs. Elwood Ingledue, Glendale; Miss Juanita Tulloh, Alameda; Mrs. John Lukanish, Oakland; J. Wiseman MacDonald, Jr., Los Angeles.

State Board Man Here on Vacation

Arriving in town this week for a two weeks stay at the Goff cottages were Mr. and Mrs. Jack South and Mrs. Frederick Peterson, of San Mateo, California. The Souths have been coming to Palm Springs at least twice yearly for the last four seasons.

South, one of the best-known newspaper men in the San Francisco Bay area, is public relations director for the State Board of Equalization in San Francisco.

Mrs. Peterson is the wife of Col. Frederick Peterson, county executive of San Mateo county and political leader in Northern California.

Gifted Pianist To Be Heard at Riverside Nov. 26

PIANIST EUGENE LIST

Attracting many Palm Springs music lovers will be the concert at the Riverside Memorial Auditorium on Tuesday, November 26, by Eugene List, one of the most brilliant young pianists in the music world of today.

The concert will be at 8:15 p. m.

Just twenty-one years old, Eugene List will be soloist for the fifth season in his brief career with the New York Philharmonic Symphony Orchestra, a tribute to the place the young man has already won for himself with performances of works ranging from Bach and Beethoven to Cesar Franck, Ravel, Shostakovich and Fuleihan.

He will be presented at Riverside under the concert management of Arthur Judson, Inc.

WILSONS RETURN FOR NEW SEASON

Happy to return to desert sunshine this week were Mr. and Mrs. Myron Vance Wilson, prominent winter residents. This is their ninth season in Palm Springs. The Wilsons this year, as has been their custom in the past, spent the summer and early fall months at their home in Helena, Montana, where Mr. Wilson is engaged in the hardware business.

Pheasant Dinner For Gang at Sandwich Shop

Maybe it was because Dwaine Wipf's papa is a member of the Fish and Game Commission in the state of South Dakota, or maybe it is because Wipf Senior is the mayor of Dwaine's home town of Menno; but whatever the reason, the gang at the Village Sandwich Shop had a grand pheasant dinner last week.

You see Dwaine hails from away back in Menno. For some time now he's been employed in the culinary department of the Gordon Feekings establishment. Each year Dwaine's father sends him out some wild game. This year it was a whopping big bunch of nice, plump pheasants.

(Ed. note: Why doesn't someone tell me about these things?)

Intriguing Sports Books Introduced By Book Shop

Out of the ordinary and designed particularly for masculine absorption is the new line of books which this week found its place on the shelves of the Desert Book Shop.

The line is published by the Derrydale Press and includes handsome volumes on virtually every sports subject. There are interesting treatises on polo, horse racing and other such subjects as "Game on the Desert," the particular work of Jack O'Connor.

Then there is the fascinating "The Gentleman's Companion," written by Charles H. Baker, Jr. Volume 1 is on Exotic Foods and Vol. 2 on Exotic Drinks.

Among recent luncheoners at the Desert Inn were observed Mrs. Nellie N. Coffman, Mayor Phil Boyd and Francis Crocker.

Doing the Town With Dottie

By DOT VARNUM

Palm Springs proved itself again in loyalty as well as success. I refer to the Red Cross Benefit held Saturday night at the Palm Springs Tennis Club. MRS. PEARL McMANUS and the committee deserve a lot of credit in planning the affair. There were SUCH beautiful gowns on the fairer sex!! Four hundred were there to enjoy the continuous entertainment. Artists went from every club in town to do their bit. I'm sure there wasn't a person there who didn't have a perfectly grand time, and at the same time help a worthy cause. The Red Cross drive is on and you see our prominent local ladies everywhere, donating their time in raising the money needed so badly. Join now. The Red Cross flag on a 50-foot pole at the Plaza with two huge floodlights directly on it, attracted a large crowd. ROBERT RANSOM has donated the use of the Carnell Building for the Red Cross headquarters. MRS. JOHNNY DAGG, founder and president of the Woman's Club in San Diego, is now associated with the Ransom office in the Plaza.

MERLE OBERON and husband, ALEXANDER KORDA, who are staying at El Mirador, were Luau Room dinner guests. CHESTER MORRIS and his party having a good time. . . Also there, LOUIS HAYWARD engrossed in his favorite numbers—Gypsy music—coming from GENE BARI's soft-toned violin. These two lads are very good friends. "The Four-of-Us" (not including me) MCed by EDDIE CLETRO at the Royal Palms Rainbow Room, played and sang to a packed house. JOHN STANTON was lone-wolfing it. Why?

The Colonial House is Cupid's Court this week. Honeymooners, MR. and MRS. FRED L. EMERSON, Jr., from West Los Angeles were there, JOE SCHWARTZ and family, AL RITZ, and JACK (Buck Rides Again) BENNY, all enjoying the sunshine. Every place in town was filled to capacity this week. I tried to find ("even a place to sleep" they would plead), for several friends, but couldn't.

Being air-minded, I can't keep away from the airport. I was there with a champagne bottle (empty) to christen the new three-place 105 Stinson that is now part of the field equipment for passenger hops and student instruction service. This with the new Luscombe, Kinner Sport, and Fairchild, gives all a chance to fly different weight ships. Several students are in the air, under the experienced guidance of DON DISHARON, and old veterans like Guitarist Luau Al (who earned his license last season) and who set a ship down while I was there) can fly all they wish. NORMAN GRANGER and JOHNNY GRAY bought an Aeronca and are being kidded about their "flying bathtub with a Matyag motor." MR. and MRS. RAMON SOMAVIA, Jr., are here with their blue Fairchild.

I had an interesting chat, and tour of inspection with MISS BIL-LIE MURPHY, charming owner of The House of Murphy. Everything is spotless and the rooms are done in such exquisite taste. I didn't want to leave. MR. and MRS. ROLLIE ASHER, Paramount's assistant producer, MR. and MRS. HENRY SHARP, ace cameraman, MR. and MRS. W. W. HOFFER (she is a daughter of Hormel Canned Goods boss), FRANK KENNEDY (CLAIRE WINSON's b.f.), MR. and MRS. LAWRENCE PRITCHARD, he has charge of music, voice, etc., at U.C.L.A. ROBERT E. ELLIS of New York City, a guest of OSCAR C. BERDGEMAN, MR. and MRS. BILLY BRIDGEHOUSE, United Artist designer, and many more are there.

An orchid—a bouquet of orchids—goes to FRANK MURRAY, the genial lad in the Lone Palm Club room. Frank's wife passed away Saturday, leaving him a 21-months-old baby. No one could be found to fill his place for the evening, so he worked the shift. When asked how he did it, Frank's reply was, "If I didn't have such a swell boss, I couldn't. He's helped me all evening." NANCY KELLY, JOAN DAVIS and hubby, CY WELLS, KING CHARNEY (the boss), exchanging political ideas between mouthfuls of MISS DAVIS' (mixed with her own hands in her Hollywood food liquifier mixer) peaches supreme. I had one too—it's delicious. "The Way of All Flesh" JOHN SHELTON, with his pal, DAVID MILLER. ERROL FLYNN with the J. MEYERS. Petite MARY McGUIRE, alternative week-ending at Lone Palm also.

Put up your "D-U-K-E-S" (and be sure to put a "K" in there. Roy Medby). The EDDIE DUKE orchestra are attracting crowds with a "this is your party" spirit, or is it JOE (LUCAS) SILVA's voice with the quartet background? BUCK HARRIS and NITA MARTAN having a "Sparkeets" cocktail while watching graceful LUCILLE DUKE's lovely hands in her authentic Hawaiian dance. MAL DUKE, the comedienne MC's real "Hallelujah!" tis something to see. GRACIE ALLEN was on the breakfast ride Saturday at the crack of dawn. A "reel" cow-gal if I ever seed one. EARL GIBBS and the whole gang were there.

BETTE DAVIS in the Chi-Chi Blue Room partaking of the cuisine and intently listening to the entertainment of CHAREL and JEANNE KELLER.

With such a beautiful location, ideal climate, diversified entertainment for guests, and such lovely places to offer them, it is no wonder our town is filled to capacity. I wish I had of been born sooner, so I could know more people.

UNITED ADOPTS PENSION PLAN

First such program to be developed on an airline, an employees' pension plan has been formulated and approved by United Air Lines board of directors.

According to W. A. Patterson, president, the plan's acceptance by company personnel will make the program operative January 1, 1941. The plan, the executive explained, is designed to supplement benefits under the Federal Social Security Act.

Visiting in the village this week as guest of Mrs. Levering Moore is Miss Katherine Winkler of Los Angeles.

Special Service For Thanksgiving

Members and friends of the Community church are looking forward to the annual Thanksgiving service to be held at the church at 10:00 a. m. on Thursday, Nov. 21. A special service is being planned for the day on which the people of the United States of America have many reasons to be thankful for existing conditions of peace in this land.

Church Women Hear Several Noted Speakers.

Continuing in the fervor which is characteristic of the Community Circle of the Palm Springs Community church, the women gathered at the lecture room of the church last Tuesday for the first meeting of this month.

As a part of the full and entertaining program, Brigadier Wood of the Salvation Army related a variety of incidents which have occurred during his service in the Salvation Army. He made clear the fact that the field of Salvation Army activities is broad, in fact, including the entire world.

Looking forward to the next meeting of the Community Circle on Tuesday afternoon, November 26, the ladies are anticipating the presence of Mrs. Nellie Coffman as guest speaker. It is expected that she will relate a few of the countless fascinating experiences of her life, which has been so admired by all who have come to know and love Mrs. Coffman.

J. W. Hayek Buys Dodge Residence

Purchase of the F. H. Dodge home on Descanso Road, by Joseph W. Hayek, president of the Kennedy Name Plate Company, was announced this week by Robert Ransom, realtor. E. L. Duffy handled the deal.

Hayek is head of a concern manufacturing parts for airplanes in connection with the national preparedness program, as well as making name-plates for many national manufacturing concerns.

"As the demands of defense preparedness fall heavier and heavier on industrial concerns," said Hayek, "it is my belief that their responsible executives can best maintain their efficiency by arranging to spend at least their week-ends in the open."

"Personally I know of no place so delightfully restful and re-invigorating as Palm Springs. That is why I'm buying a winter home here."

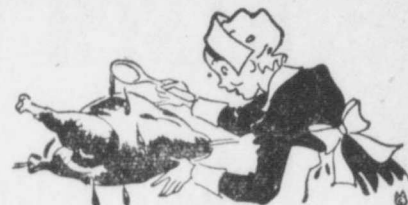

POST WRITER JOINS VILLAGE WINTER COLONY

Donald Hough, whose stories appear in the Saturday Evening Post and other national magazines, has joined the rapidly growing Palm Springs writers' colony, it was disclosed this week.

Hough purchased through Muriel E. Fulton, broker, four homestead lots in Araby, and it is understood plans now are being prepared for the construction of his desert home.

Airport Has Active Week-end; New Stinson Added to Equipment

Numerous out-of-town planes found easy landings at the Palm Springs Airport over the holiday week-end, it was reported by Arlo Garrard, manager of the field. Garrard and his attractive wife, were extremely busy not only with taking care of the visitors but in handling other airport business such as receiving and trying out the new Stinson, charter trips and instruction work.

One of the prominent week-end visitors was Wallace Beery, screen star, who arrived with his pilot Sunday morning in Beery's Howard plane. They returned to Los Angeles in the afternoon.

Wealthy resident Ramon Somavia, Jr., of Hollister, planned in Friday night in his handsome Ranger Fairchild to join Mrs. Somavia, who had arrived by station wagon with the children. Somavia flew back to Hollister Tuesday morning but will be back to Palm Springs soon again.

Learned Flying Here

Then there was Irene Anderson, able woman flier at Burbank Airport, who flew here Sunday in F. G. Slagel's Fairchild. She learned to fly in Palm Springs last season.

The Garrards were particularly thrilled with the arrival last week-end of the fine new Stinson 105, which has been long awaited. The plane is the very latest thing from the Stinson plant and is being used for instruction and charter work. Garrard, after working it out thoroughly, used it on two charter trips during the week-end.

With it in service the Garrard now have three first-class planes available at the field. These include the all-metal, easily handled brand new Luscombe and the Garrard's own big four-place Stinson. The popular Kinner low-wing, which has been at the airport for several seasons, soon will be back in use. It's motor is now being overhauled and other work done.

Historical Thanksgiving!

Many scenes have been written into American history since the first Thanksgiving was observed! Styles have changed. Laws have changed. Science, industry and mechanization have made fast strides in every phase of business and life.

Much has changed. But people remain the same—and today as generations ago, we still are thankful for the land we live in. For the religious freedom that was made our heritage by those first Americans—emigrants all, from lands of persecution.

History has seen many changes. But to us in America, there is still much to be thankful for.

Symbolic of the great advances in Science and Industry in this country since the first Thanksgiving are the many improvements made in the art of Dry Cleaning. This company is proud that it has set the pace in the Dry Cleaning field on the West Coast for more than half a century.

MONROVIA CHOIR IS HEARD IN FINE COMMUNITY CHURCH PROGRAM

With nearly every seat taken, the people of the village and many visiting friends, filled the Community church last Sunday morning as the St. Luke's Choir from Monrovia and Dr. Stuart MacLennan of Hollywood took part in the morning worship.

In addition to the congregational singing, the visiting choir sang Mozart's "Gloria in Excelsis." For the offertory solo, Mrs. Paul Hanft sang "If Christ Came Back," by Geoffrey O'Hara. Appreciation for the fine music rendered by the St. Luke's Choir, was clearly shown on the part of the congregation.

Dr. Stuart MacLennan delivered a stirring message, his subject being "The Lost Book." Dr. MacLennan, former pastor of the Hollywood Presbyterian church, is now affiliated with the Cathedral Pictures Corporation, which will soon be producing moving pictures portraying the many stories of the Bible.

After the morning service, the ladies of the Community church served an enjoyable repast for the visiting guests in the lecture room of the church. Here, the friends from Monrovia and Hollywood expressed their appreciation for the attention and hospitality given by the Palm Springs people. The fellowship was rather a farewell party to Dr. MacLennan, who left this week for the East to take up his work with the Cathedral Pictures.

Evening Endeavor

The evening Christian Endeavor meeting was again well attended, as the spirit among the young people of the village continues to expand for this kind of fellowship in the church. Sam Brown led the evening discussion, before which Gene Arcuti sang "The Lord's Prayer." Sunday, Nov. 17th, Miss Marian Williams is in charge of the discussion program, entitled, "Jesus Burning His Bridges Behind Him." Also during the meeting, there will be an installation of officers for the coming year, and the dedication of the new hymn books purchased by the C. E. Society for church use.

Saturday morning, Nov. 16th, the C. E. group is taking a hike to Long Valley, as a part of the social program of the society when all take part.

Lovely Mrs. Alexander Korda (movie star Merle Oberon) is vacationing at the Desert Inn with her distinguished husband.

Mystery Thriller Is Hall Players' Next Offering

Offering an interesting contrast in productions, the Emery Hall Players, who have leased the Plaza Theatre for the season, will present a thrilling mystery story beginning Monday, November 18, and running through Thursday, Nov. 21. The curtain will rise at 8 p. m. for each performance. The Emery Hall Players plan to stage their plays the first four days of each week.

"Love From a Stranger," written by Frank Vosper, is the next week's feature.

Peter Cushing, noted English actor, who played the leading role in this play in London, will carry the same role next week. He will co-star with Miss Louise Kiger, charming leading lady from the Peterborough Players of New Hampshire.

Reservations may be made by phoning 9404 any day from 1 p. m. to 9 p. m., or by calling at the box office of the Plaza Theatre.

MISS ETHEL HUBLER

Temperance Talk To Be Made at Community Church

Nationally known speaker, Miss Ethel Hubler, will make a talk at the Community church on November 30 at 8 o'clock. She has achieved note both on the platform and over the air for her addresses on the alcohol question.

She believes that there are so many angles to the liquor question, with many proposals for regulation and control, that the latest information is necessary for a real understanding of the problem.

Miss Hubler is a member of the National Temperance Council, vice-president of the United Dries of California, and honorary president of the Los Angeles Union of the W.C.T.U.

In her talk here she plans to review the promises made by those who sought repeal of the Eighteenth Amendment, and will discuss the manner in which these promises have been kept, according to advance information.

Miss Hubler is said to combine striking oratory with exhaustive knowledge of her subject.

Senator and Mrs. John Phillips have been enjoying a rest at the Desert Inn.

City Waste Disposal System Is Now in Smooth Operation Under Parkhurst's Expert Supervision

Ever since incorporation a thorn in the official side of the city government, the local waste disposal problem at last has found satisfactory solution under the experienced guidance of W. L. Parkhurst, who is now putting the finishing touches on setting this phase of the city's house in order.

Parkhurst was "loaned" to Palm Springs by the city of Fresno, where he is assistant superintendent of the waste disposal department.

When he came to Palm Springs on August 12th, after local officials had asked Fresno to give some help on the local problems, he found the Palm Springs waste disposal department in a decidedly unimpressive condition.

Gets Right To Work

Parkhurst set right to work, and while he officially did not take over until the first of September, the results of his presence on the job were felt long before that.

Under his guidance the affairs of this city department were placed on an efficient, business-like basis. When Parkhurst came on the job the city had nothing much to show for the waste disposal department but a city dump. Now it has the makings of really an excellent department.

Naturally, Parkhurst, whose leave expires December 1st when he will return to his Fresno job, does not have time enough in three months to build up the department to the point he would like it. But he does feel, as do other city officials, that the department will be able to carry on nicely from now on.

Wash Cans

One of the most recent innovations at the city waste disposal plant two miles east on Ramon Road is the system for can and truck washing.

Here, on a huge concrete slab, trucks are washed down with high pressure hose each night. Newest angle is the daily washing of garbage cans. This service has just been installed by Parkhurst. For from four to five cents daily per can this washing is done in a huge ammonia solution tank. The main purposes are, of course, sanitation and cleanliness. Many local hotels and restaurants and some homes as well, have availed themselves of this service at cost, Parkhurst reported.

Next to the washing platform is the galvanized iron storage shed for city trucks and other equipment.

Cleaned Up

Much has been done under Parkhurst's supervision in clearing up the city dump and making it more efficient. The dump is operated by the department with David Jones contracting for its care.

At present two trucks are utilized in city waste collection work. Each of these has two men. The trucks first concentrate on collection downtown and then the residential districts as swiftly as possible.

Garbage, by a neat system of loading and unloading at the disposal plant, is trucked there first by the city trucks and hauled away immediately by a rancher, who contracts for it on a yearly basis, providing a substantial income for the city.

Long Hours

Employees on the trucks start in at 5:30 each morning and finish up about 4 o'clock in the afternoon, spending about ten hours on the job.

It is Parkhurst's opinion that the present schedule of rates in the waste disposal department could be changed to everyone's benefit. The rate should be based on quantity of waste collected and the times of service required, he believes, and not on the number of rooms in a home or hotel or the number of stools in a cafe.

$9000 In Prizes Offered in Hemet Turkey Show

Coming by rail, truck and airplane, hundreds of the country's finest Thanksgiving birds are now being received in Hemet for entry in competition for $9000 in cash prizes to be awarded at the fifth annual Hemet Utility Turkey Show. This greatest exposition of its kind in the world will open at noon on Thanksgiving Day and will continue through Friday, Saturday and Sunday, November 22, 23 and 24.

Live bird entries have been received from points as far distant as New Hampshire.

Visitors to the show will find scores of new amusement and entertainment features this year, in addition to an enlarged educational program which will include lectures by some of the country's foremost authorities on turkey production and marketing.

Word has been received in Hemet that Edward E. Davies, agricultural agent for the Union Pacific Railroad, is bringing a party of 50 Utah turkey growers to Hemet for the exposition. Other special parties are coming from Northern California, Oregon and Washington, according to Miles Nickles, general manager.

An added feature on turkey classic again this year will be Riverside county's finest horse show on Saturday and Sunday afternoons. The horse show will be under the management of Guy Campbell and will bring to Hemet the best of California's equine bluebloods. Cash prizes amounting to $2300 will be distributed among the horse show exhibitors.

Friday, November 22, has been set aside as Riverside County Day, one of the features of which will be a kick-off luncheon at the Hotel Alessandro. There will be luncheon accommodations for 300 persons. State Senator John Phillips of Banning will preside.

The Turkey show is sponsored by the Forty-sixth District Agricultural Association of which J. C. Loomis is president. A total attendance of 25,000 for the four days is expected, Mr. Loomis said.

Cathedral Services Prove of Interest

Sunday, November 17, will mark the third week of church activities in Cathedral City under the direction of Robert Noles, assistant pastor of the Palm Springs Community church.

Sunday school assemblies at 9:30 in the village hall under the charge of Mrs. Wenger, and at 11 a. m. Mr. Noles brings the message at the morning worship service.

Each Monday evening there is a Bible study group in the home of a church member, the place of meeting changing each week. The group, under Noles, is studying the Book of Romans. All are urged to attend these meetings of fellowship and study.

GIRL BASEBALL PLAYERS TROUNCE PALM SPRINGS STAR TEAM 10-7

By JIMMY GLENDY

When Fred Clampett, distributor for DeSoto and Plymouth cars in Los Angeles, met George Roberson, local Buick dealer, in Los Angeles at the Auto Show some time ago, I presume their immediate conversation pertained to the fine lines and the performances of the cars which they represent.

And I have no doubt but that during the conversation each one entertained the feeling that he represented the finest cars on the market.

As they conversed there was, I imagine, a plot hatching in the mind of each, as one topic led to another.

And so there was, it eventually proved. For Mr. Clampett, sponsor of one of the outstanding girls' softball teams in America, knowing that Mr. Roberson is also sponsor of the local Buicks softball team, issued a challenge and the challenge was accepted.

Prove Ability

Now it is many years since equal rights to women were granted by a sane and unbiased vote of the people. Those of us, who have been foolhardy enough at times to doubt the ability of the female species in athletics, left the local ball park last Sunday, doffing our hats to the ladies. For in downing the Buick team by a score of 10 to 7, the Marshall and Campett girls' team proved their entire right to this equality—or better—business.

Under the management of Hal Berger, California's leading sports commentator, the girls performed like major leaguers. And those fortunate enough to witness this great ball game, went away with the conviction they had seen one of the finest aggregations of girl athletes in the country.

Tanner Aids

Much appreciation should be given the Tanner-Gray Line concern, of which Cecil Isenagie is Palm Springs' representative, for bringing the girls to Palm Springs and returning them to Los Angeles in the big new stage of the company.

Earl Gibbs, president of the Field Club, and newly appointed member of the city recreation commission, informs me that this is only one of the many events planned for the season. And he also tells me that in the near future we shall probably see the amazing Marshall and Campett girl athletes perform here again.

Well, well, we certainly are becoming a nationally known sports center. And rightly we should be. We have what it takes—climate, climate and more climate—and unquestioned enthusiasm.

Annual Swim Meet and Top Tennis Feature Busy Week at El Mirador

Topped off by the thirteenth annual swimming and diving meet this week-end, activities at El Mirador this week are pretty much of a sports nature. Many Pacific coast and Eastern socialites, plus a bevy of top tennis players were on hand.

There were plenty of doings, indeed, since last Thursday.

Mrs. John Russell Pope, accompanied by her beauteous daughter, Jane, were at the hotel for several days, while the latter was a frequent visitor at the Racquet and Tennis clubs.

Elizabeth Ryan, champion English woman tennis player, left Wednesday after several days at El Mirador, vacationing. She found time, though, to get together with Jamie Del Amo, Los Angeles socialite and former doubles partner of top-notch player Frankie Parker; Welby van Horn, fourth ranking U. S. tennis star, and Ellsworth Vines, who was at El Mirador from Pasadena.

With Vines were L. B. Icely, president of Wilson Brothers Sporting Goods company, and H. E. Gillette and George P. Shaw, Pacific coast managers.

Famed Publisher

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Scripps of the Scripps-Howard publishing family were guests at the hotel for several days, while Mr. and Mrs. Del Amo, together with Miss Barbara Huber of Beverly Hills, and Mr. and Mrs. Christian Kautz, Los Angeles socialites, formed a merry quintet.

A prominent Portland socialite, Mrs. Harry A. Green, has arrived at El Mirador on her fifth seasonal visit, and will be joined later in the season by her husband and by her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barker.

Mr. and Mrs. Roydon Vosburg, who are among the top figures in the Southland social whirl, week-ended at the hotel and were joined by their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. William C. Vosburg, of Pasadena. Mr. and Mrs. John Lamb, the former Helena Vosburg, of Palm Springs, were on hand, too, of course.

Some of the other guests were Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Warner, Jr., of Palos Verdes, who are great tennis fans, too; Mr. and Mrs. Ernest E. Lehmann of New York, who have returned to their winter home in Beverly Hills, but who will be back for El Mirador's New Year's celebration; Mr. and Mrs. B. A. Parrish of Montecito; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cutler of New York; W. G. Lowenfeld, manager of Hotel Pierre in New York City; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Nutter of San Francisco, and George Burns and Gracie Allen, of the films, who were at El Mirador on a brief rest from Hollywood activities.

Geiger Associated With Popular Gates Nut Kettle Here

Norman Geiger, for the past eight years connected with Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer Studios, this week joins the Gates Nut Kettle, to become associated in business with well-known Johnny Gates.

A native of Southern California, having been born in Los Angeles, young Geiger has a legion of friends, not only among stars and executives in motion pictures, but in outside business and social life.

In token of appreciation of his effort and friendly personality, he was tendered a farewell party by studio friends Wednesday night of this week following completion of his final day of work with M-G-M.

The keynote of the get-together was: "We hate to see you go—but cheerio on your venture into Earth's Paradise! We'll all be seen' you in Palm Springs." Geiger at once left to begin his duties with Mr. Gates.

Classic League Notes

Walter "Mack" McCutchen, captain of the Palm Springs Classic league team, showed those gathered how a captain should bowl last Thursday night. Pitted against the Hudlow's Drive-in team of Redlands, Mack paced the locals to a two to one victory by garnering a fine 653 series. Off to a slow start with 167, Mack warmed up with a 217 second game and had the boys on their respective ears the last game when he pounded the maples for a 269, the best game to date this year on the local drives.

With a little more help from the anchor spot Palm Springs could have hung up a league series record. Palm Springs shot as follows: Bevill 533, Brahm 562, McCutchen 653, Sanborn 564, and Rose 492.

The 850 team proved far too tough for Riverside, taking three games and totals. Tom Clarke was high with 594.

New Faces and Old: DR. GEO. BRAHME of Indio, first year on the Classic team, second year bowler, averaging 178 in the Classic league; shot 607 two weeks ago in San Berdo.

Big CHARLIE BODINE, back in town for the season, bowled with Smoke Tree in the Classic last year; high average man thus far in the Palm Springs Major, bowling with Gibbs Drug at a 187 clip. If you think that's not good try it some time. . . . WILMA RAYMOND, new bowler in town this year, captain of the Gates Nut Kettle team in the Palm Springs ladies' league; not the highest average bowler, but certainly the most enthusiastic; has improved her average every week. . . . GILBERT ROLAND, movie star, bowling with the Racquet Club team in the Handicap league this year; not new at the academy, but new in league play, carrying a fine 180 average—a gentleman and a swell fellow.

Majorettes Beat San Bernardino
Palm Springs' Majorettes trimmed the San Bernardino ladies' team Sunday by a margin of 108 pins. Gladys Murray with 526, and Billie Tomlinson with 502, were high.

Palm Springs took the San Bernardino men scratch 2773 to 2710, but were forced to handicap the visitors 90 pins, thereby losing the match. Rose was high with 609.

National Champ Visitor
Ned Day, national match game bowling champion, has been a daily visitor at the local alleys. While not bowling this week, Day's presence has caused no small amount of interest. Ludie Britsch, former manager of the local academy and at present owner of the Riverside Bowling Academy, was a visitor, Sunday. Wally Topham, member of the Riverside Oranges and captain of the Riverside Classic team, was a local bowler over the weekend.

Major League Notes
Johnny Young, sponsor of the league-leading Valley Laundry gang, paced his team to a two to one win over the tough Plaza team. Johnny had a nice 625 series and his teammates helped him into a 2688 team series which is second high for the league. Valentine's were finally stopped, Rocks' bowlers turning the trick, 3-0. Sporting Goods' took Armstrong Dairies 2 to 1.

NEWS OF PALM SPRINGS
HIGH SCHOOL
By DICK OUTCAULT, JR.

SPORTS

Friday, Nov. 8, was a day of victory for a number of high school football teams, but Palm Springs was not among them. The Indians lost to Beaumont, 21-0. Not as bad as the last time to be sure, but not a good showing by any means. Our team shows up as weak on defense. Beaumont had some excellent plays and used them to advantage many times through our line.

Well, I shall say no more about the defeat and look to the future. Today the team goes to Banning. We haven't lost to them yet, but have come close to it. However, this time I think the Braves will show their heels as the team is always primed for a Banning game. Here's hoping, anyway!

GUEST SPEAKER

This year's senior civics study has incorporated several new features that aren't usually taken up in civics, but are nevertheless proving valuable. Among these is the practice of having a different townspeople talk to the class each week, using as a subject whatever he is best fitted to tell about. So far we have heard Judge Albert Hoffman and Mr. John Chaffey.

Last Tuesday we had the pleasure of hearing Major Hohl. It was his second appearance as he was unable to cover all his material at one time. Major Hohl talked about army lore and told of a few of his numerous war experiences. He has seen service in Mexico, Panama, the Philippines and France and so was well qualified to give a speech of this kind. He gave it to perfection.

If the future speakers come up to the examples set by Major Hohl, Judge Hoffman and Mr. Chaffey, our year in the civics course will be by no means dull.

NEW FEATURE

It is noted with a great deal of pleasure by the students of the high school that a bus is now being taken to games for spectators. Heretofore only the team was furnished transportation to the out-of-town games. Now, however, a rooting section can be had no many more can see the "away" games. Gradually we're getting there, by gum!

SAY—

Two extras. Precisely what has happened to the town tennis tournament. Perhaps I am a bit ahead of myself and it isn't time, but I haven't heard anything mentioned about it. There are about twenty or twenty-five enthusiastic entries at the high school rarin' to go.

And the other—How many of our townspeople who attended the Red Cross Benefit at the Tennis Club noticed the high school girls doing their bit for charity as taxi dancers? One of the gals was paid, actually paid, for a dance with Don Ameche. Standing right there I couldn't help but notice that she was speechless. Well, almost speechless, the good of femininity asserted itself and she wasn't left without words.

Hardly was the election over, when the newspaper men of the country, most of whom had supported Wendell Willkie, pleaded for national unity and announced they would back up the President. Then along comes Secretary Harold Ickes and prods them again. Stating that the President was elected with less than 23 per cent of the Press, he adds:

"This reveals an unprecedented and progressively perilous situation requiring public consideration. Although we are fortunate in having free communication over the air, I am convinced that our democracy needs, more than ever before, a truly free press that represents no class or economic group and that will re-win the confidence of our citizens."

What does Mr. Ickes mean about free communication over the air? The Democratic National Committee had to PAY the radio stations for every campaign address made by the President and his supporters, while the newspapers published all of these speeches FREE. Of course, the same is true of the Willkie campaign. It was only in their editorial pages and personal columns that the newspaper editors stated their personal opinions, but Mr. Ickes wants to deny them that right. These so-called FREE radio stations do not have editors, and the owners either do not dare to go on the air to express their personal opinions or they haven't the courage to do so. Everything they put out is paid for. Just like a newspaper that has nothing but advertising, I suspect if Mr. Ickes checked up on how the radio operators voted, he would find them in the same camp with the newspaper men. If the newspapers followed his advice, they would change their opinions at every election and support only the candidates they believe would win. When that condition prevails, the public will lose all confidence in the Press. After all, the New Deal victory last week wasn't so great that Mr. Ickes has anything to crow about.

Thank God, we still have a free press, even if the radio is controlled body and soul by its advertisers and the government. I still have the right to tell Mr. Ickes that to me he is just a pain in the neck and I hope, along with fifty million other Americans, that the President accepts his resignation.

Let us pledge anew the boys who died and died in '17 and '18, in a war to end all wars, shall not have fought in vain and that we shall maintain peace and democracy in America. If we plunge headlong into another war we shall be false to them, to the braves, their mothers and fathers. I have yet to find one man who is shouting for war who expects to fight in that war. There are people who get a "kick" out of war, just as they get a "kick" out of a football game. They are the ones who expect to sit safely in the roofing section, wave the flag and yell for our side. I wish very one of them could visit our veterans' hospitals, the national cemeteries at Arlington and Gettysburg, and the grief-stricken mothers in the former homes of the heroic dead. Maybe they would lose some of their enthusiasm for another war.

Another war at this time is unnecessary. America can gain nothing by entering the war in Europe or Asia. Foreign nations do not buy from us because they love us, nor do they refuse to trade with us because they do not like us. They buy from America only so long as America can supply the goods they need, and of course, they cannot buy from us unless we buy from them.

We have the assurance of most of our military experts that America need not go to war, among them is the veteran General Robert E. Wood, who during World War had charge of supplying the entire American military establishment. Just one month ago he said:

"A nation cannot be a knight-errant. It must be realistic. Great Britain, during her entire history, has been coldly realistic, and her success in building up her empire has been due to her realism. As individuals we can give vent to our generous impulses or even to our pet hates, but our statesmen, our editors, our moulders of public opinion must consider that it is not their individual fortunes and lives that are to be considered, but those of 130,000,000 of their fellow citizens."

"Now we come to our own danger of invasion and the perfectly fantastic hysteria that pervaded this country after the battle of France. I think any competent military or naval expert, certainly the vast majority, will tell you that there is absolutely no danger of an invasion of the United States even if Germany is completely victorious, and I doubt whether she will be. The amount of shipping required for the transportation of even 250,000 men of a modern mechanized army with their ammunition and supplies over 3,000 miles of ocean is colossal and it is to be presumed that our own navy and air force will not be idle."

"If it is impracticable or at least exceedingly difficult for an army to cross 25 miles of channel, what valid grounds are there for supposing that a large army can cross 3,000 miles of ocean to invade a continent?" "Some will inquire—why should it not be possible for Germany to seize bases in Mexico or Central America and attack from those countries. Again, that presupposes an overwhelming sea power. But even if that sea power were present, there would again be the same difficulties of a 3,000 mile long line of communication for an invading army. And an army once landed must cross an exceedingly difficult terrain before ever arriving at the Texas border. I think that hypothesis may be safely dismissed."

All we need to do to keep out of the war is not to get into it. Germany and Japan have their hands so full it is doubtful that they will attempt to take on another formidable enemy as powerful as America.

It is the duty of every citizen to cooperate with the government in the national defense program, that America may become so strong that no foreign nation will trifle with us. That is the pledge we owe to the boys who fought for democracy in the World War, and to those who will have to fight if war comes again. Remember, war means a dictator in America, and a dictatorship will possibly result in persecution of minorities when the people look for a scapegoat on whom to blame the war and its terrible aftermath. That's what happened in Germany.

This column has frequently come to the defense of the metropolitan press and has denied that the city dailies color the news or tell only part of the story. But here is a discrepancy that should be explained: Three daily newspapers that I read on Tuesday, the Times, Daily News and Herald-Express, purportedly published the "full text" of Wendell Willkie's Armistice Day address, but only the Times included the following paragraph (which all of us heard distinctly over the radio), while the Daily News and Herald-Express omitted it:

"Mr. Roosevelt and I both promised the people in the course of the campaign that if we were elected we would keep this country out of war unless attacked. Mr. Roosevelt was re-elected and this solemn pledge from him I know will be fulfilled and I know the American people desire him to keep it sacred."

This was one of the most important statements in Mr. Willkie's address and certainly should not have been overlooked by the two Los Angeles evening newspapers.

Willkie stressed the importance

Advisory Board Is Selected

Members of the selective service advisory board for District 15, which includes Palm Springs, were named this week by Walter S. Dodge, chairman.

The group for Palm Springs includes Francis F. Crocker, Guy Pinney, Charles V. Knapp, William H. Widdess; for Cathedral City, Willard R. Hillery.

Dodge advised that young men receiving questionnaires should consult a member of the advisory board in order that their papers will be filled out correctly, thus avoiding the delay of having to complete a second paper or make corrections later.

INSPECTORS OF SUPPLIES NEEDED FOR WAR DEPT.

The United States Civil Service Commission is endeavoring to secure inspectors of miscellaneous supplies to fill positions at the Jefferson Quartermaster Depot, Jeffersonville, Indiana.

Inspectors are needed in the following classes of supplies: Hardware, leather, wood products, Chinaware and glassware, stoves and ranges, tents, sheet metals and sheet-metal products, bakery and cafeteria equipment, tableware and kitchen utensils, paints, varnishes, shellac, lacquers, etc., and gasoline, greases, lubricating oils, etc. The salary for these positions ranges from $1,800 to $2,000 a year, less a retirement deduction of 3½ per cent.

Further information as to the requirements for the examination may be obtained from Orville Purpus, Secretary of the Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners, at the postoffice in this city, or from the secretary of the board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners, at any first- or second-class postoffice.

of a strong minority party and said that the continuation of democracy in America depends upon a two-party system, and should the time ever come that one party completely dominates, America will have a dictatorship and we will lose our freedom. Whichever party is in office, the other serves as a check and a balance wheel. Therefore, Democrats and Republicans alike should rejoice that the election was so close.

In this last election Mr. Roosevelt received 2,000,000 less votes than he did in 1936, although 5,000,000 more votes were cast, while Willkie received more than 45% of the total vote cast. As the leader of the minority party that polled 22,500,000 votes, Mr. Willkie will continue to be a powerful influence during these next four years.

A commendable organization has been formed in New York, known as the "Good Losers Club." Its slogan is, "Let's go to work for America." Probably few have actually joined that club, but its slogan is the sentiment of nearly all of the fifty million voters and was even before the election. Outside of the fifth columnists, this is a united nation. We are all agreed on a strong national defense and in supporting the administration to achieve a more abundant life for the greatest number of Americans.

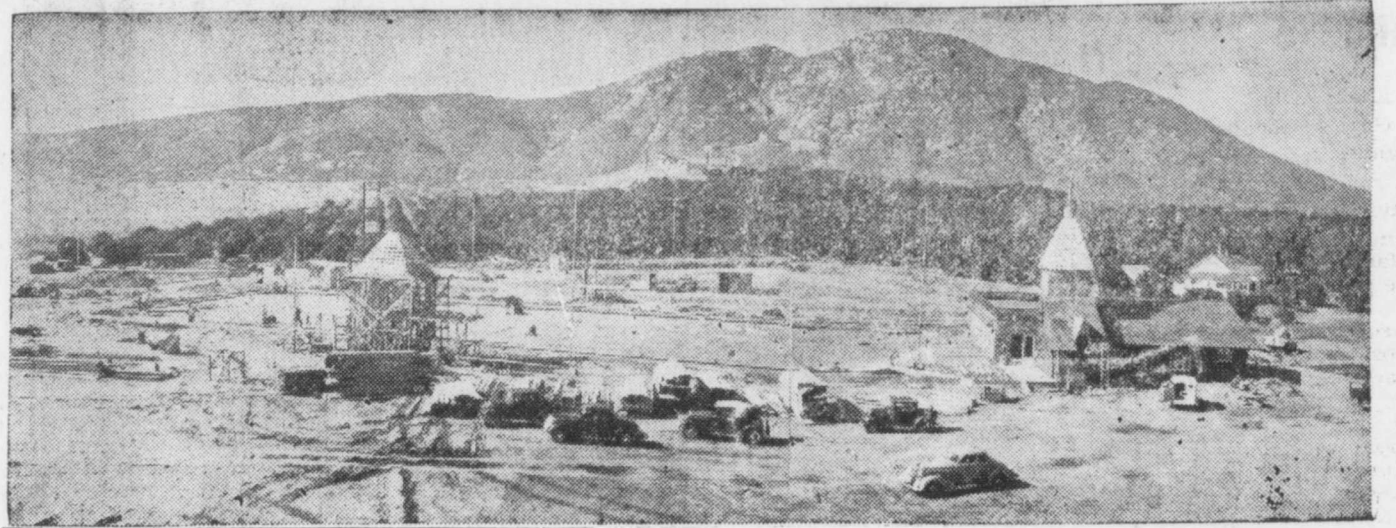

The day after election a local man went to Los Angeles. While there he was told by a hotel manager that the country was going to the dogs. "Five days from now the banks will all be closed and soldiers will be marching in the streets," the pessimistic hotel man predicted. P.S. man took exception to the prediction, and an argument resulted. "Just wait and see," was the hotel man's parting shot. Well, five days from then the banks were closed and the soldiers were marching. It was Armistice Day.

Ice Palace Being Built Near Riverside

The above photograph shows the new Orange Belt Ice Gardens now being constructed on La Cadena Drive half way between Riverside and Colton.

Climaxing a year of efforts on the part of many Riverside and San Bernardino county businessmen, this newest addition to this area's sports and recreation centers will be open to the public for ice skating the latter part of November.

Combining the newest and most modern patents of construction this huge ice floor will contain approximately 20,000 square feet of skating surface and will be almost a city block long.

Interesting features of its plan is the double boiler plate steel floor between which will course the 60,000 gallons of brine necessary to refrigerate the surface. Two 300 horsepower motors will run compressors of equal capacity, or a total of 600 horsepower. Total weight of the steel floor is 492,000 pounds, which is supported by a concrete and steel foundation that, rising from the ground forms an air-tight base.

ment six feet high and running the length of the rink. Temperature in this basement will be maintained at 16 above zero, thus helping to insulate the outer surface.

The rink will be outdoors, which is recognized as the ideal and natural atmosphere for skating. The entrance building shown in the center of the rink will be divided into office and ticket booths on the lower floor and orchestra shell in the second story. Main lobby, together with cafe, skate rental and skate service departments, will be contained in the larger building shown at the right.

Unique in bringing a pleasant and zestful environment to the Chalet type buildings is the Sky Room, accommodating two hundred or more, an open lounge and dining room that is located on the roof, and is in addition to the cafe on the ground floor.

XMAS SPECTACLE ARTWORK

Something new in a Yuletide spectacle to raise money for the British War Relief Association will take shape in Los Angeles November 19, with the premiere of the Christmas Show at 5843 Wilshire Boulevard. The show will continue until December 25.

Almost an entire city block has been transformed into a "magic city." A block-long front with huge animated picture-book figures on its walls will be the gateway to mysteries within.

Under a large pavilion, throngs will visit a series of spectacles. Some of these will be a fairyland theater, trick dog circus, magic castle, snow-man's cave, rainbow forest, snow mountains, Santa's castle and workshop, ginger-bread house, Xmas on the range, melody town, mechanical menagerie, trained apes, model town and others.

Hollywood scenic artists and directors, it was said, have worked for weeks constructing and producing the various fantasies.

John C. Austin, chairman, said net proceeds will go for relief of women and children of all democratic nations in the bombed areas.

Others on the board are Richard B. Torrey, Mrs. Oscar S. Elvrum, Harry Chandler, William May Garland, James S. Macdonnell and Mrs. Gertrude H. Rounsaville.

While the premiere will be a typical Hollywood event, Austin said popular prices will prevail on all afternoons and nights thereafter. The shows will start daily at 12:30 p. m., and will continue until late in the evenings.

Gosden Is Sued For Divorce in Los Angeles

Marital affairs of Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Gosden, popular Palm Springs winter residents, which have been rumored in difficulties for some time, were brought into court when Mrs. Leta S. Gosden sued the famous radio comedian for divorce in Los Angeles, yesterday.

Mrs. Gosden charged the beloved Amos 'n' Andy radio characterization, with mental cruelty. No specific instances were cited.

The couple were married in Chicago, June 13, 1927. A property settlement was made out of court and terms agreed upon for custody of the couple's young children, Freeman, Jr., 12, and Virginia Marie, 10, it was stated. Both are to remain with their mother, with Gosden having the right to visit at reasonable times and their custody during certain summer months.

Gosden, and his radio partner, Charles Correll, have done broadcasting during the winters in Palm Springs for many seasons.

Today the two will give their 3500th broadcast of 700 straight weeks. They have been on the air 15 years and one-third of this time they have spent on the road. Both left today for New York on a business trip. They will continue their broadcasts from there.

Questionnaires Go to Thirteen

From the offices of Exemption Board No. 157 in Indio questionnaires were mailed out Tuesday to the first fifty names on the draft list. This group includes thirteen Palm Springs young men.

They are: Eugene Ernest Theriault, Robert Henry Frohn, Bartolo R. Alvarado, Walter Harold Cucoine, John Leslie Boyer, Homer Willard Neil, Raymond Witty Davenport, Jay Wilbur Morrison, Guilermo Azara Cruz, Francisco Colayac Candeo, Peter Ramos, Edward Payson Bailey and Arthur Robert Taylor.

1941 Champion Takes a Bow

Local motorists were given their first peak at the new 1941 Studebaker Champion this week. The new edition of the car that has successfully crashed the lowest price field is larger, has more room, boasts of a more powerful engine, and yet retains the economy of operation that made it a sweepstakes winner in the 1940 Gilmore-Yosemite Economy Run with an average of 29.19 miles per gallon. The design is by Raymond Loewy. A. J. Jenner is the Palm Springs Studebaker dealer.

Make Preparations For Thanksgiving

While there are many places which will celebrate Thanksgiving Day on Thursday, November 28, Palm Springs, like the rest of California, will pretty generally observe November 21 as the holiday. Most restaurants, cafes, shops and other businesses are making their preparations accordingly, dyed-in-the-wool Republicans notwithstanding.

Circle Elects Officers; Mrs. Coffman To Speak

The election of officers for the coming year and other business took place at the meeting of the Community Circle of the Community church held Tuesday afternoon at the church. With Mrs. John W. Williams as chairman, refreshments were served after the meeting.

Officers elected were as follows: Mrs. Leroy Hooker, president; Mrs. Alvin Skiles, vice-president; Mrs. Howard Fulmor, secretary; and Mrs. John W. Williams, treasurer. Capt. Wood spoke informally to the group.

Mrs. Coffman to Speak

A very pleasant program is in store for all ladies attending the next social meeting of the circle. This meeting is to be held Tuesday, November 26 at 2:30 p. m. at the church. Mrs. Nellie N. Coffman of the Desert Inn will relate many incidents encountered by her during her many years in Palm Springs. All who have heard her in previous years are looking forward to this meeting when they will again be afforded an occasion to hear her. All women of the village are invited to attend this social meeting.

All of us are always going to do better tomorrow, and we would, too, if only we started today.—Anon.

... it tunes up a meal to a perfect start

says Dorothy Greig

ONE of the most appetizing sights in the world on a cold day is a great steaming tureen of thick, savory soup arriving on the table. The soup looks and tastes so good. It is a heartening, stimulating beginning to a meal.

Nowadays, too, our choice of soups is wider than ever before. Thick soups, thin soups, racy soups, bland soups... whatever we want in the way of soup is to be found on the grocer's shelves.

Then there's the trick of combining one soup with another — and that opens up yet another range of flavors. For instance:

You can make a meal of this one—

Hearty Soup
2 frankfurters (sliced)
1 teaspoon butter or bacon fat
1 can condensed bean with bacon soup
1 can condensed pea soup
1 can milk
1 can water

Cut the frankfurters in 1/4 inch slices and cook them in the butter or bacon fat. Then add the bean with bacon and pea soups, the milk and the water. Heat and serve immediately. Serves 5-7.

This next would never do for Pa and the boys after a hard day's work. But it's just about perfect for Mother's luncheon party:

Tomato Consommé
1 can tomato juice (14 oz.)
1 can condensed consommé
Heat the tomato juice and consommé together. Put one spoonful of whipped cream on each serving of soup. Serves 3-4.

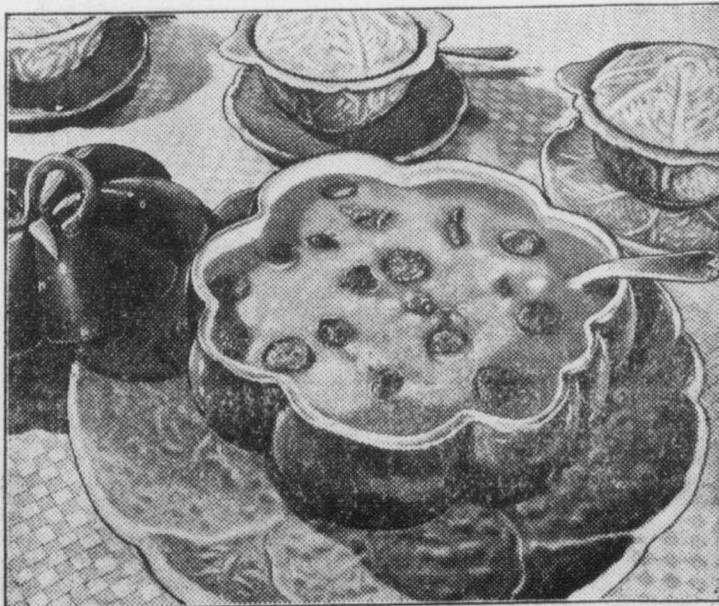

For the youngsters' lunch, here is a particularly good suggestion—
Highland Vegetable Broth

1 can condensed Scotch broth
1 can condensed vegetable soup
2 cans water (using soup can as measure)

Combine them. Add the water and heat. Serves 5-7.

Racy in flavor, yet satisfyingly hearty—this is a love of a soup—
Bisque of Tomato and Clam Soup

1 can condensed clam chowder
1 can condensed tomato soup
2 cans milk
Stir the tomato soup into the clam chowder. Then add the 2 cans of cold milk (using the soup can for a measure). Heat to the boiling point, but do not boil. Serve immediately. Serves 5-7.

Hearty Soup—thick and savory, almost a meal in itself.

Your Chance=== to own a beautiful desert country estate

Are you one of those individuals who has long dreamed of the day when you, too, could spend the winter on a restful desert country estate? Well, here is your long-sought opportunity to acquire such a ranch at an almost unbelievable saving.

We offer for your consideration an improved thirty-three-acre estate only fifteen minutes from the heart of Palm Springs. The land is partially planted to citrus and dates and has an abundant supply of inexpensive water from two wells on the property.

The improvements include an early California-type Hacienda with two master bedrooms and two baths, plus servants' room and bath; two-car garage; stable; and electric power water system. The grounds of the residence are well planted.

A short distance off the highway, this quiet country estate offers the chance for real rest and the healthful enjoyment of ranch life.

The residence is modern and well constructed of concrete tile with red tile roof. It is an all-electric home with agricultural rate and telephone.

Mother Passes in Huntington Park

Mrs. Jack Dugan, winter resident here for a number of years, received the sad message Sunday of the death of her mother, Mrs. N. Krotz of Huntington Park. Mrs. Krotz was well known here and her many local friends will be deeply grieved to hear of her passing, as she was admired and loved by everyone.

Death came to Mrs. Krotz as she was leaving the church she so dearly loved. Surviving are the following: Mrs. Jack Dugan of Palm Springs, Miss Irene Krotz of Huntington Park, Mrs. Cliff Hartson of Huntington Park, Mrs. Frank Cross of San Diego and Harry Krotz of Glendale. The deceased also leaves to mourn twelve grandchildren and four great-grandchildren.

Our greatest glory is not in never failing, but in rising every time we fall.—Goldsmith.

New Riding Club To Be Organized At Tuesday Meet

Young riding enthusiasts of Palm Springs, for the most part managers and employees of local business establishments, made tentative plans on a moonlight supper ride last night in Smoke Tree Forest, for the formation of a riding organization.

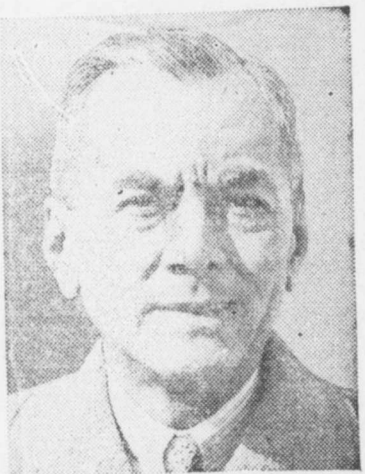

Approximately forty signed up for the new equestrian group which will get under way officially at a first business meeting next Tuesday night at 8 o'clock at the polo club house of the Field Club. Other persons, besides the original group, who may be interested in weekly morning rides and monthly moonlight rides, are asked to attend the first meeting.

NEED NAME
All attending have been requested to offer suggestions for a name for this organization which probably will be formed somewhat along the lines of the Desert Riders.

Among those who spoke last night in favor of the new group were Marjorie Hyde, Joe Butler, Harris Posey and Johnny Scott.

It is planned to charge moderate dues, which will be used to defray expenses of the moonlight rides and possibly a pack trip toward the end of the season.

Half-Way Mark

The Philippine islands, under the guidance of President Manuel Quezon, pass the half-way mark to independence on Nov. 15. In 5 years they will be free in accordance with the Tydings-McDuffie bill passed five years ago.

Sparkling New Entertainment For Bil-Al's

Always thinking up new entertainment angles is this fellow Bill Niendorf, who has lined up some unique features for his Club Esquire for next week.

On the week-end, Friday and Saturday, Nov. 23 and 24, the special added attraction will be Abijah Gooch (Frank Wilder) and his famous RKO novelty band. This group recently completed the first "Little Abner" picture.

During their appearances here, they will feature a tune from the picture, which will be played for the first time in public at Bil-Al's. Niendorf had no little trouble getting the boys here because they are working on a new comedy picture at the present time. He succeeded because Franz, suave Maitre d' at Bil-Al's this season, has long been a close personal friend of Wilder's.

The orchestra consists of five musicians and is known on the screen as the "Skunk Hollow Symphony."

Gordon Henderson and his excellent radio band are still carrying on at Bil-Al's. The popular dine and dance place will have a special Thanksgiving dinner and dance on Thursday night, the twenty-first.

Drawing high praise is the fine food served by new chef Otto Klien, formerly of the Army and Navy Club in Long Beach and other well-known places.

"The Case of the Nine of Skulls," Super-Detective Ashton-Wolfe tells of a mysterious assassin who apparently dropped his victims from the clouds and how he was adroitly trapped. Read about it in the double-page illustrated feature in The American Weekly, the magazine distributed with next week's LOS ANGELES EXAMINER.

Cathedral City

By W. R. HILLERY

Armistice Day will long be remembered by almost every one in Cathedral City and by many from outside the village, not for a great parade, but because of the turkey dinner put on at the Town Hall that evening for the benefit of the Town Hall fund. Mrs. Edna Cobb was in charge, and with her corps of assistants of volunteer ladies, girls and lastly, men, the affair was one of the smoothest and happiest ever put on here. The birds and the abundance of trimmings were delicious and nicely served. For a social gathering it was outstanding and included almost every one in Cathedral City, with several parties from outside the village. One of these came from the new subdivision east of us, Palm Village, while another came from Rancho Mirage and the ranches in that area. Those from Palm Springs were plentiful. Dr. and Mrs. Macartney with Dr. John's new assistant, were in one group. Frank Doro and his family, John Alder and his family, and a jolly group the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Martell, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. R. Sutherland, Mrs. Jarmin, Floyd McKinney and Mr. and Mrs. N. Hotchkiss.

From the financial standpoint the dinner was also a success and though figures are not available, the net will approximate $100.

Miss Katharine Fleming and Miss Ethel Cynthia Scribner are now occupying their new ranch house in the DaVall Ranch colony.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Dorn have returned from the Lake Arrowhead court they conducted this past summer.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Duncan returned from a Los Angeles trip and made no mention that they were involved in an auto accident in that city last Saturday in which their car was badly damaged and they were quite painfully injured.

Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Lewis are occupying one of the Hillery Rockwell cottages. The Lewises live on the coast and make frequent trips to the desert which they like to explore. They find that fascination that comes to those who really study its beauties.

James Wolseth was at the Town Hall the other night, and of course Mrs. Wolseth was with him. It was a grand thing to think that after more than two years of bedridden pain Jim was with us again, "on the hoof." Doc Brandt was there with Mrs. Brandt and it was a treat also to have him with us after a serious illness last summer. And just a word of sadness when we missed those cheerful souls who have helped to make our world bright in the past.

If the editor of The Desert Sun doesn't mind, I want to mention the ad of Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Snyder in this issue. We all know that a newspaper actually lives by its advertising and our community hasn't been able to do much, either to assist this newspaper which assists us, or to increase our business by advertising. And so it is a pleasure to see one or two of our local concerns starting the ball rolling in the right direction.

FIRST BOARD MEETING

The Cathedral City Woman's Club held their first board meeting Monday evening at Desert Lodge, the home of Mrs. Mary Wolseth. Plans were made pertaining to the two new sections the Woman's Club has adopted. They are the desert lore and hobby section, the desert lore section meeting next Wednesday, November 20 at 2:30 p. m. and the hobby section on November 27 at 2:30 p. m. Both meet at Town Hall. All club members are urged to attend the first meeting.

CLUB HAS CANYON BREAKFAST

The first regular meeting of the Woman's Club was held Wednesday morning with a canyon breakfast. Mrs. Marguerite Hillery was the hostess, assisted by Edna Peterson, and Mrs. Ora Gephert. A delightful ham breakfast was enjoyed by a goodly number. The salute to the flag was led by Mrs. Emma McMickle. Mrs. Edna Laas inducted the meeting with a beautiful prayer which was very inspiring, echoing in the majestic cathedral-like peaks.

The president, Mrs. Wary Wolseth, presided over a short business session after which all hiked to the end of the canyon to see the lone palm and the waterfall, there to behold once more the beauty of the desert and nature.

THANKSGIVING PARTY FOR VILLAGERS

So that all residents and visitors of Cathedral City may be afforded a chance to share their Thanksgiving dinner with their fellowmen, the Cathedral City Woman's Club is sponsoring a Thanksgiving dinner to be held at the Totem Pole Cafe, Thursday, November 21, between the hours of one and three. The dinner is open to the public and reservations should be made before Wednesday. Reservations may be made at the Totem Pole Cafe, the postoffice, or by calling Mrs. E. H. McMickle.

The Cathedral City Community church group are very fortunate in having Robert Noles, assistant to Dr. Macartney of Palm Springs to conduct the church services every Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Weekly Bible classes are conducted every Monday evening at 7:30 at the various homes of the group. This list will be posted in the postoffice.

Guests this past week at Casa Reposa included Mrs. Fred Cester and Miss Theresa Cester of Los Angeles, Miss Helen Sharp of Anaheim, Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Mounse and daughters, Myrna Dawn and Sharon of Inglewood, A. W. Herbst and Lew Herbst of Inglewood.

CLATWORTHY FAMILY VISITS NEW YORK

Back in Estes Park from a delightful visit to the East coast is Mrs. Fred Payne Clatworthy who recently spent some time visiting her 84-year-old mother, Mrs. Ada C. Leonard at Binghamton, New York.

Helen Clatworthy accompanied her mother to New York. While there they visited other friends and also stopped at the New York Fair. The Clatworthys plan to be back in Palm Springs later in the season.

Our thoughts are epochs in our lives; all else is but a journal of the winds that blow while we are here.—Thoreau.

American Girls in Battle of Britain

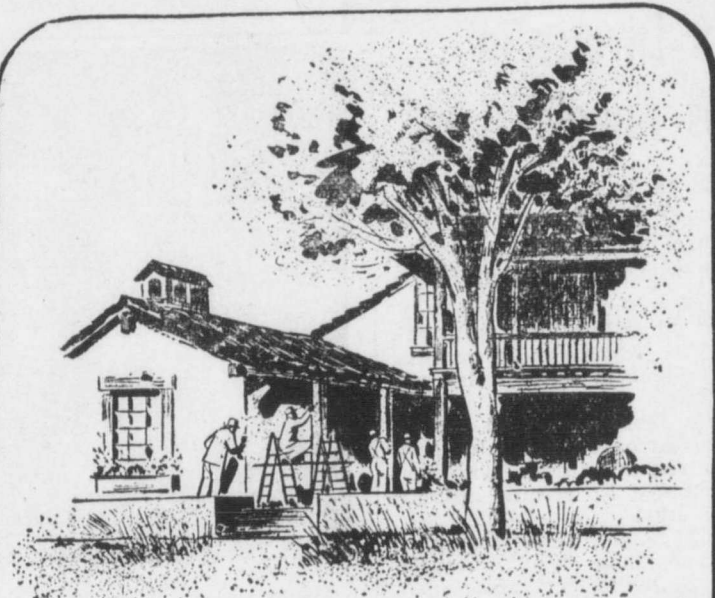

These five girls are members of the personnel of the first two units of the American hospital now operating "somewhere in southern England." The hospital is sponsored by the Allied Relief fund. There are 17 Americans on the staff, 12 of whom are doctors, surgeons and technicians. The British caption did not give the names of these girls.

District Officers of Boy Scouts Hold Meeting

Senior Scout activities were discussed and probability of early formation of a group of older boys foreseen at a meeting of district officers of Troop 39 of the Boy Scouts of America at the high school Wednesday night.

Presiding were Paul Summers, district chairman, and Carl Helmick, district secretary. Committee members included Lloyd Simon, Edward Merritt, Charles J. Mathews, Raymond Cree and Florian Boyd.

Present also were Charles V. Knapp, commander, and Ray Tomkins, vice-commander, of the local post of the American Legion.

It was disclosed that due to the small membership of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, which has long sponsored the Boy Scouts, this sponsorship has been withdrawn. The local post of the American Legion has taken over this important responsibility.

The intense interest shown by the Junior Chamber in the past, and the many benefits achieved by its efforts, will long be remembered by all persons who have been connected with the troop, it was emphasized.

First job confronting the Legion is the completion of a committee to select and appoint a Scoutmaster. Some work has been done toward this end and it is believed will be completed this week.

Nothing is achieved before it be thoroughly attempted. — Sir Philip Sidney.

ART PATRON

Claudette Colbert, scintillating star of the screen and art patron, is pictured here as she cleans with a raw potato, an oil painting, a Monnet masterpiece. Miss Colbert is refurbishing her collection of paintings for Art Week, which will be observed nationally the week of November 25 to December 1. The picture was painted by Monnet in 1885. More than 1,000 sales exhibits are being arranged throughout the nation, at which American Arts and Crafts will be made available at prices within the reach of the average person. WPA is servicing the preparations of the exhibits for the National Council of which Francis Henry Taylor, Director of the Metropolitan Museum of Art, New York City, is chairman.

PREPARATIONS REACH FINAL STAGE FOR CHRISTMAS SALE AND BRIDGE TEA

Stuffed animals, dressed dolls, pretty colorful aprons—these and many other articles suitable for Christmas gifts will be on display at the Christmas sale and bridge tea given by the Guild of the local Episcopal mission next Tuesday afternoon, November 19, at the Tennis Club. This is an annual affair presented by the ladies of the Guild. Activities will start at 2 o'clock, bridge will be a feature of the afternoon with Mrs. Francis Crocker in charge, assisted by Nancy Reiff, Edwina Partridge, Jeanne Martineau, Patsy King and Suzanne Williams. Home-cooked food will also be served by this group.

Mesdames Eber D. Kanaga, Claud Freed, Frank S. Roberts and Helen Babcock will have aprons and household articles for sale. Sale of hand-made rugs and bedspreads will be under the direction of Miss Helen A. McCallum and Stella Rooke. For the children there will be a table of dressed dolls and stuffed animals in charge of Mrs. Florence Douglas. And a "white elephant" table presided over by Mrs. Harrison Leussler and Mrs. John Trowbridge.

Public Invited
Afternoon tea will be served from 3 to 5 o'clock by Mesdames Levering Moore, John Henri Sattig and Miss Kate Collins. Mrs. Raymond Wilson is general chairman of the party assisted by Mrs. Henry Hoagland.

The Guild extends a cordial invitation to all villagers to attend.

Creative Art Classes Started By Jeanie Coutts

Gifted daughter of a great artist, winsome Jeanie Coutts this week is launching her own enterprise in Palm Springs with a series of creative art classes at the famous Gordon Coutts Art Gallery.

Daughter of the late Gordon and Mrs. Coutts, Jeanie has been studying at the Otis Art Institute in Los Angeles for the last three years. Prior to that she was given tutelage by her father.

Miss Coutts has her studio in the gallery which remains open to the public. Her creative art classes will be for children from six to sixteen and are intended to develop the imaginative faculties. She has expressed herself most willing to discuss her objectives with anyone interested in art.

New Innovations At El Paseo Beauty Salon

Opening for its second successful season in Palm Springs with many new innovations in the art of beauty culture for Madame, was the popular El Paseo Beauty and Body Salon, owned and operated by Mrs. Mildred L. Masters in El Paseo Building on N. Palm Canyon Drive.

Boasting the very latest in modern beauty treatment machines and gadgets, El Paseo Beauty and Body Salon specializes in all lines of beauty culture. This fall the brand new Creme permanent waves were added to the shop's repertoire and a new line of cosmetics is being stocked.

A new addition to the beauty salon this season is a facial department featuring a new padded facial table, making it possible for Madame to receive her facial while reclining. This enhances the restful effects of the treatment.

Competent Staff
In charge of the beauty salon is Miss Marjorie LeBlanc. Miss LeBlanc spent the summer in the beauty shop of the Hotel Saint Catherine on Santa Catalina Island. She is assisted here this season by Miss Virginia Taylor, a Palm Springs girl; and two more beauty operators will be added to the staff on December 1.

The body salon, dedicated to the maintenance and health of "the body beautiful," is in charge of the competent Lorena Baker, formerly associated with well known Florida spas. The body salon boasts many types of treatments for health, reducing and body building, together with special treatments for arthritis, rheumatism and colds. Offered in the body salon are sulphur, medicated, steam and electric baths; salt-glow rubs; Danish exercises and Swedish massages; electric reducing treatments and many others.

New Equipment
New additions to the body salon this season include a brand new rowing machine, spot rollers for "spot reducing" and many new electrical devices.

Mrs. Mildred L. Masters, owner of the establishment, enjoyed three months of last summer traveling in company with her cousin, Miss Hazel Owen of Los Angeles. The ladies' itinerary included Alaska, Chicago, New York City, Havana, Cuba; and Florida. They returned from Havana to Miami on the clipper.

Mrs. Masters is now back in the village for the season.

Noted Artist To Open Gallery

Opening of the Miller Gallery in Palm Springs on November 20 at 435 North Palm Canyon Drive, was announced by Evelyn Nunn Miller, internationally known artist, lecturer and teacher, this week.

The artist, who has won many prizes and awards, and a place in "Who's Who Among American Women," will have her art works on display and for sale. Door prize on opening day will be one of the artist's own paintings.

Mrs. Miller has long been a painter of the desert, even before her world tour of painting. In 1930 her canvas entitled "Verbenia Time," received the competitive purchase prize at the Women's Club of Hollywood. Her paintings previously have been shown at the Desert Inn Gallery.

and serve it with an orange sauce that has been creamed to a foam. Did I say a man would like it? Just watch him!

Steamed Fig Pudding
4 tablespoons shortening
1 cup sugar
1 egg, beaten
1 can condensed tomato soup
2 cups flour, sifted
1 teaspoon cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
2 teaspoons baking powder
1/2 teaspoon baking soda
1 1/2 cups chopped figs
Sift flour, then measure, add spices, baking powder and baking soda and sift again. Wash the figs and dry thoroughly, then chop and combine with 2 tablespoons of the flour mixture. Cream the shortening, and add sugar gradually and cream together well. Then add the figs alternately with the tomato soup. Stir until the mixture is smooth. Then fold in the figs. Put in a greased mold and steam for 2 hours. Use melon mold, empty coffee can or shortening can and fill to within two inches of the top. Serves 8-10.

Foamy Sauce
1/4 cup butter
1/4 cup confectioner's sugar
1 teaspoon orange rind, grated
1 egg, separated
2 tablespoons orange juice
Grate the orange rind and to it add the orange juice. Cream the butter thoroughly. Add the confectioner's sugar, and mix. Stir in the egg yolk, then the orange juice. Fold in the beaten egg white. Serve 1 spoonful on each piece of pudding.

which he thanked the people in his district for endorsing him and the members of the council for appointing him. He expressed hope that he could work with the other councilmen in a manner pleasing to them and to all his constituents.

Thereupon the council adjourned to meet next Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

Take Up Radio Bids

However, the public safety committee met after regular session, to discuss with representatives of two radio manufacturing concerns bids submitted for a new police department radio. The matter had come up during the regular meeting, but was referred to the public safety committee and Chief of Police Harstad for further study for report back next meeting.

The two bids submitted for the 250 watt station transmitter and relay receiver were by the RCA Manufacturing Co., Inc., and Pierson-Delane, Inc., of Los Angeles. The first, represented locally by H. R. Harper of Wired Music, submitted a bid of $2,325.77 for de luxe equipment, while the second offered a bid of $2,498, it was stated. In both cases allowances were included for old equipment as well as for tax and installation. Harper and S. J. Combs, factory engineer, appeared for the RCA concern and Carl Pierson was here in behalf of his firm.

Zone Changes

Public hearings were held on zone changes asked by J. Marvin Ostrander and Mr. and Mrs. Austin McManus. Ostrander spoke briefly in behalf of his petition seeking change of his property from R-1 or residential to R-4, which is for duplexes, bungalow courts and apartments.

The council accepted the recommendation of the city planning commission and voted the application to be granted. City Attorney Roy Colegate reported the planning commission was to hold a hearing soon on proposed change of the entire block in question to R-4 zoning.

The council voted in favor also of the planning commission recommendation for change of zone from R-4 to C-1 of the southerly 130 feet of the McManus property on Amado Road, formerly known as Gundry's. This will permit operation of a cafe or restaurant serving beer and wine, on these premises.

Scooter Applications

After a brief public hearing on scooter applications, the council voted to grant requested licenses to Reuben Miller, Raymond "Tex" Davenport, Cliff McCullagh, Charles McFarland, and R. H. Tibbals.

A resolution authorizing proper surveys for a suitable airport in or near Palm Springs was passed.

Over the protest of local insurance man Richard Haas, the council unanimously voted to award a fleet coverage for city vehicles to the firm of Koehler-Samson. Herb Samson, who has spent several months zealously working out with Councilman Shannon a schedule which will effect considerable saving for the city, explained various phases to the council.

Clifton and Shannon both pointed out that Samson has been largely responsible for achieving reduction in local fire insurance rates and has contributed other valuable services to the city.

No Set Policy

For lack of a set policy in the matter of insurance and also because they felt Samson's concern had held previous policies which were merely transferred for the new, as well as to reward Samson for his important work, the council awarded the large insurance contract to him.

Police Chief Harstad spoke briefly in behalf of his request that the board take action to make necessary report of all industrial accidents. Action was deferred to permit more thorough study.

Councilman Clifton again came eloquently to the behalf of constituents of his district, declaring that there was not a single fire plug in Ward 4.

"How in thunder," thundered he, "is the new 1,000-gallon pumper going to function up there in case of a fire?"

Shannon said the fire chief is now undertaking a survey of the entire city concerning the fire plug situation.

The council adopted an ordinance regulating the solicitation of donations for charity, philanthropies, bazaars, and other causes.

PRETTY MODELS WORK FOR BRITISH CAUSE

THREE pretty John Powers models are shown above as they presented William V. C. Ruxton, president of the British-American Ambulance Corps, with the money they made selling flowers and pins at a recent dinner dance given for the benefit of the Ambulance Corps at the Casino Russe in New York City.

Last Step in Draft Lottery

Col. C. R. Morris, left, stirs the blue lottery capsules containing the draft numbers of 16,500,000 registrants, while Capt. R. B. Davidson pours the last of the capsules into the historic bowl. Note the "second story" added to the famous goldfish bowl after it was discovered the bowl was not large enough to hold the 8,500 capsules.

Mass Pilot Training Starts

over one million members; that more than 30,000 bowlers participated last year; that the Riverside Oranges, a team entered by the county seat, did a most excellent advertising job for their city on their trip back last year.

IT WILL REQUIRE approximately $1,000 to send a five-man team to the national meet, Rose says. He believes that four or five big local concerns or individuals might well sponsor a man each and take care of his expenses. The result would be many thousands of dollars worth of publicity to the village, thinks Rose. Many others feel the same way about the project. We do not know much about bowling but we do know the sport has gained tremendous popularity throughout the country. And we feel that sending a team back to the convention undoubtedly would produce valuable publicity for Palm Springs.

IT WAS NO particular surprise, but it was a pleasure for most of us to see Harry Lawson Plymire sworn in as councilman Wednesday night. Senor Plymire is young, energetic, ambitious, likable. He has a pretty level head. He has wanted the job badly enough, goodness knows why, to get out and work for it. We feel that anyone who wants such a job, filled as it is so often with censure, and requiring always a lot of gratuitous work is a good citizen, sure enough, but is asking for trouble.

AFTER WE'VE done so much preaching about going after the South American travel business we are informed that Palm Springs is doing something about this fertile field after all. From the chamber of commerce we learn there have been many inquiries recently from South Americans and that proper information has gone to them. We still do wish, however, that the chamber of commerce had sufficient money to launch a really big-scale advertising and exploitation campaign in the South American countries.
